By SUE BURK

Things are looking up in Seaside these days and all for the better, too. Indications are shown that the Seaside Hi-Lighters Club will be planning a "Bright Lights Display" for the Heights during the Christmas Holidays. Homeowners will be receiving a card bearing the good news shortly.

A plastics party this last week in the home of Bea Meroia of the Seaside Ranchos. Marie Tahan of El Segundo acted as demonstrator of the product to guests Betty Kiehlley, Ann Forstrum, Ruth Powel, June Guethlein, and Mrs. Siconax on Tuesday, Nov. 14th. Bea served her guests an interest tea.

Scout Mothers meeting for the month of November was held in the home of Margaret Whyte of Sharynne Lane in the Ranchos. Emile Honzik handed in her resignation as secretary, due to too many other duties to perform. We were sorry to receive this bit of bad news, but happy to see Martha Kolleck fill the position. Sue Burk filled in as news chairman, taking Martha's recent job. The Christmas Tree Lot will be located again this year on Palos Verdes Blvd. between Milne Dr. and Sepulveda Blvd.; the lot will be open on Dec. 10th. The Scout

Mothers have several varieties of party aprons, plus new exciting items to place in their booth this year. Plans for a Christmas party to be given at the Old Ladies' Home in North Redondo were made, also. An executive board named "Sunshine Chairmen" were chosen by the mothers, naming Madge Graham, Virginia Naumann, Pauline Glass, and Janet Wood to act the Sunshine Girls. Those present at the meeting were saddened by the news of one of their members, Mrs. Alma Kissel, who was reported to be in Hawthorne Community Hospital suffering from pneumonia. A surprise gift to Mrs. Janet Wood and new baby boy was a lamp and shade, the base of which contained a lovely music box, with Brahms' Lullaby. Mothers present to see the surprise and enjoy delicious chocolate cake and coffee were Ellen Berry, Sue Burk, Virginia Naumann, Madge Graham, Martha, Kolleck, Pauline Glass, Margaret Whyte, Janet Wood, Myrtle Nix, and Mabel Caudill. The December meeting will be held in the home of Mabel Caudill of 5225 Vanderhill Rd., on Dec. 7th.

A keg of nails will be opened to celebrate when work is done.

Illness in the past two weeks have included baby Dora and Clarence Hendershot, Jr., with intestinal flu; William Earl Burk with a bad cold; Kenny Bickford, cold; Pamela Betus Beverly Cleveland, and Sally Jones. Broken arms from a rough and tumble football practice befell Richard Johnson and Mike Meyers, and Larry Caudill still suffers from a broken right leg.

Roger Unger of Vanderhill enjoyed a pleasant surprise recently when grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Merle J. Unger of New Jersey, were flown out to be guests on "This Is Your Life" honoring life long friend, William Bendix. Roger spent some time in the Bendix home, with parents, Merle and Marion Unger.

A reunion of the Art Center Class students met in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ken Bickford of 5117 Zakon Rd., last week for a country-style dinner and a fabulous evening. The outside porch was decorated to depict "ye old camera and pitcher takin' shop" while the front room was known as the Dark Room. Guest in lively blue jeans and plaid shirts to enjoy a delicious dinner of country style barbecued hot dogs, several varieties of beans, tossed salad, pumpkin pie and coffee included Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hopke, of Alameda; Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Biro, of Beverly Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Nicholas Sarno, of North Hollywood, and Stephen Long, of

Jack and Betty Mitchell, of 5113 Zakon Rd., are happy to see the new room they are adding to their home is so near completion. Only one accident so far, and that was when several youngsters of the immediate neighborhood decided to make impressions with their feet on the newly poured cement slab, necessitating a quick repair job to both the cement slab and the kiddies. Perhaps

GREETING CARD . . . "Ye old camera and pitcher takin' shop" was the scene of an Art Center class reunion last week. Ken Bickford, of 5117 Zakon Rd., fixed up his front porch this way to guide the visitors to the party.
